Email Blasts

Every vendor who has taken advantage of a MOM email blast has come back for another. It works. It’s your message. It’s your sense of urgency. It’s your response mechanism.

Introduce a new product or concept...drive traffic to your website...promote a new white paper that showcases your company’s capabilities. The possibilities are infinite.

Email blasts currently go to nearly 6,000 MOM members and prospects. They are conference and webinar attendees, newsletter and e-zine subscribers, book buyers and recurrent website visitors. Pricing for one use is $1,500, and there are discounts for multiple uses.

Contact Jennifer Frost for scheduling details and to learn how an email blast would complement your current marketing activities:

MOM Webcast

MOM Webcasts take advantage of MOM’s marketing routines and membership lists by having MOM help you develop your own webinar, marketed to MOM audiences, for your company’s products and services.

This is an effective and cost effective option to reach the decision-making medical office managers, maximizing your message both in North America and internationally.

Pricing begins at $1,500.

Contact Jennifer Frost to learn more about Licensing Webcasts and to review scheduling (MOM Webcasts are very popular and should be scheduled months in advance). To learn more about how a MOM Webcast can complement your current marketing activities: Jen@medicalofficemgr.com
